

Studies In First Corinthians

(I Corinthians 7:25-40)

1. Would a virgin have sinned if he or she did not follow Paul's advice about not getting married because of the present distress?

2. During the present distress Paul wrote of, should those who did get married have planned on a long and peaceful relationship?

3. When one gets married, will he or she have some cares for things that are of the world?

4. Why did Paul bring these things before those in Corinth?

5. Is there authorized freedom to decide whether or not a virgin, who passes her age of maturity, shall be given in marriage?

6. How long is a wife bound to her husband?

7. Though Paul gave his judgment multiple times in this chapter, what does he state to give his judgment on these things greater weight?