1. "I have been a member of the Church for 47 yrs. I have learned from Ferrell Jenkins, Don Truex, and Homer Hailey. Men you are not worthy to polish the shoes of. In all of mine years learning from greatness, I have never heard a preacher say that God doesn't work the same way today as he did in the first century. That tells me you are way off base. Who taught you that God changed the way he works?"

2. "What scriptures teach us how to receive other Christians who are not walking worthy? Paul says in 1 Cor 1, with all those in who in every place call upon the name of our Lord so is that meaning as long as they name Jesus and have been baptized they are in our faith?"

3. "Do you greet one another with a holy kiss. (Rom 16:16; 1 Cor 16:20; 2 Cor 13:12; 1 Thes 5:26; 1 Pet 5:14)?"

4. “Our congregation has several women that want to teach. So the elders have decided to have a second bulletin called “The Woman’s Corner” and a ladies class taught by the 3 women that want to be teachers. I believe this is the first step to having women preaching. Am I over reacting?”

5. “I have left the congregation I am a member of in North Carolina. I am about to give up on the Church entirely. I cannot find a congregation anywhere that doesn’t have constant strife. I stumbled on your website. I think it is interesting. I could see how such a strict approach could prevent strife but I could also see how it could generate it. Is there strife where you are? Has there ever been? How do you handle it?”
