

If You Just Pluck Verses Out Of Context...

I. Introduction: “Context” means: “the circumstances that form the setting for an event, statement, or idea, and in terms of which it can be fully understood and assessed: the parts of something written or spoken that immediately precede and follow a word or passage and clarify its meaning” (New Oxford American Dictionary).

A. Sometimes things can be easy to misunderstand (Matthew 16:5-6).

1. Those misunderstandings often bring about discussions (Matthew 16:7).

2. Jesus expects us to never be “in the moment” thinkers who do not consider all we know/can know on subject matters (Matthew 16:8-12).

B. We have to be cautious not to make unnecessary inferences for they will hurt us and cause the spread of false information (John 21:20-23).

1. We cannot just jump to a conclusion on anything without fully studying/reasoning it out (John 5:18; 30-39).

2. Remember, part of learning is the ability to reason (Acts 17:2-3; 18:4).

II. Body: Think Of Some Of The False Conclusions You’d Reach By Just Plucking Scriptures Out Of Their Contexts And Not Considering Other Scriptures On The Subject Matter (Matthew 22:23-32)...

A. You could conclude that you must never sleep (I Thessalonians 5:6).

1. The point about not sleeping from this verse, in it’s proper context (I Thessalonians 4:13-5:11), was alertness and preparedness (Matthew 25:1-13 and Romans 13:11-14).

2. Using other Scriptures, we know that physical rest is necessary (Ecclesiastes 5:12 and Mark 6:31).

3. Yet, if you are unreasonable you could continue to twist Scriptures to try and prove that we should always be awake.

a. Proverbs 6:4; ignoring context.

b. Luke 22:46; ignoring context.

c. John 11:11; ignoring context.

d. I Corinthians 15:51; ignoring context.

B. You could conclude that you must pray 24/7 (Luke 18:1, Luke 21:36, and I Thessalonians 5:17).

1. We know this is not literal for Jesus Himself “ceased praying” (Luke 11:1).

2. Reasonable people understand that Jesus was not “always” praying. Ex. He had to go and pray because He was not always in prayer (Mark 1:35 and Luke 9:28).

3. Being reasonable you KNOW you cannot pray 24/7 for such would prevent other things (Ephesians 4:15; 25, II Thessalonians 3:10, etc.).

C. If something is physically wrong with you, it is because you or your parents have sinned (John 9:2 and Acts 28:1-4).

1. Contextually, their conclusions were false (John 9:1-7).
2. Had they known the Scriptures, they would have not come to those conclusions (Ecclesiastes 9:1-12).
3. Yet, an incorrect understanding of Scriptures can lead to that thinking (ex. Jeremiah 29:11, and Romans 8:28 out of their contexts).

D. Men cannot touch women (I Corinthians 7:1).

1. Contextually, that conclusion is false (I Corinthians 6:15-7:5).
2. Other Scriptures certainly make the conclusion that a man cannot touch a woman a false conclusion (Proverbs 5:18-19 and Hebrews 13:4).

III. Conclusion: Do you get it? It is easy to twist Scriptures, take them out of context, etc. Be careful (II Peter 3:15-18)!
