

Rightly Divide Rather Than Self-Justify

I. Introduction:

- A. We are justified by doing the Lord's will (Romans 2:13).
 - 1. This is through His grace (Romans 3:24).
 - 2. If we seek to be justified by Christ, and yet sin, we are doing what God forbids (Galatians 2:17).
- B. When we approach the Scriptures and/or spiritual discussions, we must rightly divide [properly handle] the word of truth (II Timothy 2:14-18).
 - 1. Don't come to the word of God to justify something you have already concluded to be right (Matthew 22:23-33).
 - 2. Don't approach the Scriptures and/or spiritual discussions with a unwillingness to accept and obey the right answer because of how you "feel" about that answer (Acts 28:17-27).

II. Body: Luke 10:25-37

- A. We know all we need to know when we read that this lawyer was "tempted" [tested] Christ knowing Christ was the "Master" (I Corinthians 10:9).
 - 1. For the most part, the "lawyers" had a pattern of rejecting the truth and being a hinderance to others (Luke 11:45-46; 52).
 - 2. They were unwilling to submit to the Lord's will (Luke 7:24-30).
 - 3. Question for me/you: Do you have a problem with absolute submission to the will of Christ? Absolute submission to His will is required for us to be saved (II Corinthians 5:14-17, II Corinthians 10:1-5, II Thessalonians 1:7-9, and I John 2:15-17)?
- B. It is not that they were unable to reason or learn (Luke 10:26-28; cf. Deuteronomy 6:5).
 - 1. Sometimes people reason themselves away from the truth (Luke 20:1-8).
 - 2. Use reason properly (Proverbs 3:5-7 and Acts 17:1-5; 10-11).
 - 3. Guard against what you are comfortable with through tradition or what is reasonable carnally (Colossians 2:4-8).
- C. But he, willing to justify himself... (Luke 18:9-14).
 - 1. Don't be self-deceived (Romans 12:1-3).
 - 2. Self-justification won't save you (Proverbs 20:6, Proverbs 28:13, and Romans 10:1-3).
 - 3. No person, of yourself or themselves, are the standard by which you are measured (II Corinthians 10:12; 18).
- D. Now, not to have someone go to the other extreme, we cannot condemn ourselves unjustly by OVERTHINKING things and making things harder than Christ intended (I John 5:2-3).

1. Sometimes people create their own guilt or impossible standard of themselves. Stop listening to your own ways (Isaiah 55:6-9).
2. Remember: “There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus [John 15:7-10], who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit” (Romans 8:1).

III. Conclusion: Luke 16:15
