

Studying About Elders Is Beneficial To Us All

I. Introduction:

A. Anytime you are learning from the word of God you are learning something that is somehow beneficial for you (II Timothy 3:14-17).

1. Every word of God is beneficial to us (Luke 4:4).
2. God's word is a book of enlightenment (Psalms 119:129-130).

B. The Scriptures show us the importance of having elders in every congregation (Acts 14:23).

1. Qualified elders would oversee us, spiritually feed us, and lead us by being godly examples (I Peter 5:1-3).
2. They would be watchman for our souls (Hebrews 13:17).

II. Body: Let's Consider How Learning About The Qualifications/Work of Elders Is Beneficial To Us On Many Levels (Proverbs 1:5; 9:9).

A. Most of the qualifications for elders apply to all Christians (I Timothy 3:1-7; Titus 1:5-9).

1. Doesn't "good work" apply to us all (Ephesians 2:10)?
2. Doesn't being blameless apply to us all (Philippians 2:14-16)?
3. Doesn't some teaching ability apply to us all (Hebrews 5:12-14)?
4. Doesn't temperance apply to us all (I Corinthians 9:24-27)?
5. Doesn't holiness apply to us all (I Peter 1:13-16)?
6. Doesn't the subject matter of hospitality apply to us all (I Peter 4:9)?
7. ...And on we could go, but you should see the point!

B. We need to be able to identify qualified/unqualified men (Ephesians 5:6-11).

1. Elders, even when they were appointed by the Holy Spirit, were not always a "sure thing" (Acts 20:28-31).
2. Following the wrong kind of leaders ends in destruction (Isaiah 3:12).
3. If we are ignorant we will be easy prey Hosea 4:1-11 and II Timothy 3:1-7).

C. We are working hard to secure this congregation. However, history tells us that hard work can be quickly undone (Judges 2:6-15).

1. Evangelists are to protect against error (II Timothy 4:1-5), but faithful men don't live forever on this earth.
2. Look at how Jesus thought about the future (John 21:15-17).

III. Conclusion: Next month, we will begin a study about elders. Don't wait until then to start thinking about how you might be, help others become, or aid the upbringing of our future leaders (Psalms 78:3-8).
