

The Devils Are More Obedient Than Most Will Ever Be

I. Introduction:

A. Jesus would tell the erring that those known to be sinners had a better chance of being in Heaven than those who thought they were good (Matthew 21:23-32).

1. In part, such statements were made because those of us who have sinned greatly appreciate the chance of salvation (Luke 7:36-50).

2. In part, such statements were made because those whom choose to be blind have ZERO chance of being saved (Acts 28:26-27).

B. How “good” is the end for the devils (Matthew 25:41)?

1. Could one appearing to be a follower of Christ really be a devil in disguise (John 6:60-71)?

2. What would it take for you to be considered as a devil (I John 3:8-10)?

II. Body: The Devils Believe And Tremble (James 2:19).

A. They obeyed the authority of Christ (Luke 10:17).

1. Man has long rejected Christ (Luke 20:9-19).

2. We read and even sing a song about doing all by the authority of Christ (Colossians 3:16-17).

3. As we read the devils believed and trembled (James 2:19), let our obedience be fueled by more than just fear (II Corinthians 5:14-15).

4. They were subject by force (Mark 3:14-15). Let us be obedient by choice and proper excitement (Psalms 40:8).

B. They were willing to acknowledge the truth (Acts 16:16-18).

1. They knew and acknowledged Christ (Mark 3:11).

2. Men have not been so willing to do so (I John 2:18-19; 22).

3. We need keep ourselves in the right (I John 2:23-26).

C. They would not listen to false teachers (Acts 19:11-16).

1. Man is not so careful (Jeremiah 5:31 and II Timothy 4:1-5).

2. We must be on guard (Proverbs 19:27 and Ephesians 5:6).

D. They understood their time was coming (Matthew 8:28-34).

1. Men downplay the coming judgment (II Peter 3:1-14).

2. Are you ready (Mark 13:32-37)?

III. Conclusion: Listen up.... They had “it” but gave “it” up (Jude 1:6). Don’t give “it” up as they did (Hebrews 10:35-39)! *It - A home in Heaven.
