

We Should Be Faithful Too

I. Introduction:

A. We discussed last week how that God is our faithful Creator (Isaiah 25:1).

1. His faithfulness should be a motivator for us (Hebrews 10:23).

2. His faithfulness is a high standard (Psalms 36:5-7).

B. We also briefly introduced how that we are to be followers [imitators] of God (Ephesians 5:1-2), within reason of what we are capable of.

1. Time and chance can change what we promise (Ecclesiastes 9:11).

2. Our Creator can make promises knowing what is to come without limitations we have (Isaiah 46:9-11).

II. Body: Our Lord Expects Us To Be Faithful [trustworthy; trustful; sure, true; Strong's # 4103] Throughout Our Whole Lives (Revelation 2:8-11).

A. Think about how a faithful person is so trustful, so sure, that you can depend on them (Matthew 24:45-51).

1. Are you honest enough for the Lord and other people to trust you with tasks (I Corinthians 4:1-2)?

2. Think about we know it is not in God's nature to lie, thus impossible (Titus 1:2).

3. Is your nature so pure and honest that it is impossible for you to lie (Proverbs 14:5 and Colossians 3:9-10)?

B. Dependable to brethren and strangers (III John 1:1-5).

1. We are to be honest to all people (Romans 12:17, II Corinthians 8:1-24, and I Peter 2:12).

2. Being a visible pattern to all (Titus 2:7-8).

C. The measuring stick of dependability can be seen in our approach not only to spiritual things, but carnal things too (Luke 16:1-15)?

1. Think about how the Lord considers this principle is qualifications of bishops/elders (I Timothy 3:1-7).

2. Not doing right in the lesser is a good light of examination for the greater (i.e. I John 4:20-21).

III. Conclusion: So be faithful in all things (Luke 19:11-27).
