Where The Soul Never Dies

1. This song is Scriptural for these reasons: See below!

2. This song is not Scriptural for these reasons:
   - Can you prove we’re on our way to Canaan’s land, where a rose is blooming for you, where a love-light beams across the foam (Ephesians 5:10 and 1 Thessalonians 5:21).
     - The answer is no!
   - Canaan was a promise to the descendents of Abraham (Psalms 105:9-11).
   - Canaan was a physical region (cf. Matthew 10:4), whereas the kingdom we now are citizens of and that to come, is not (Hebrews 12:22-23 and Hebrews 13:14).
   - Canaan is not used to denote a spiritual home in the Scriptures.
Where The Soul Never Dies

And there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying... for the former things are passed away. Rev. 21:4

Wm. M. Golden

1. To Canaan's land I'm on my way, Where the soul of man never dies; My darkest night will turn to day, Where the soul of man never dies; And I will spend eternity, Where the soul of man never dies; It shines to light the shores of home, Where the soul of man never dies; Where there will be no parting hand, And the soul of man never dies.

2. A rose is blooming there for me, Where the soul of man never dies; And I will spend eternity, Where the soul of man never dies; It shines to light the shores of home, Where the soul of man never dies; Where there will be no parting hand, And the soul of man never dies.

3. A love-light beams across the foam, Where the soul of man never dies; And I will spend eternity, Where the soul of man never dies; It shines to light the shores of home, Where the soul of man never dies; Where there will be no parting hand, And the soul of man never dies.

4. I'm on my way to that fair land, Where the soul of man never dies. No sad farewells, No tear-dimmed eyes, Dies. Dear friends, there'll be no sad farewells, There'll be no tear-dimmed eyes, Dies.

Where all is love, And the soul never dies. Where all is peace and joy and love, And the soul of man never dies.
