

Studies In Romans
(Romans 8:14-27)

1. What is one led by if they are sons of God?
2. In Christ, prior to the full revelation of God, how would one know they are the children of God and no longer under bondage of the Law of Moses?
3. With whom are Christians joint-heirs?
4. Is any suffering we might face for Christ comparable to the reward we'll receive?

5. What does the “creature” wait for that “we ourselves groan within ourselves” for?

6. Do we have hope by sight?

7. Did the Spirit of God help with prayers?

8. Is/was the Holy Spirit capable of knowing what we think?
