

Studies In Romans
(Romans 11:1-15)

1. Did God cast away Israel?

2. What was true in the days of Elijah (Elias) that was still true when Paul was writing the epistle to the church in Rome?

3. If there was a remnant because of works, what would that mean about grace?

4. Was there a purpose in the hardening of Israel, their fall, and salvation coming to the Gentiles?

5. What did the fall of Israel bring to the world and to the Gentiles?

6. What was one of Paul's goals in using his office in speaking to the Gentiles?

7. Could it be said that, since the casting away of Israel meant reconciliation for the world, that their acceptance would bring about something great?
