

Studies In Romans
(Romans 14:1-9)

1. Can brethren be receptive to those who are weak in the faith?
2. Do stronger Christians struggle with the eating of meats?
3. Should the eating of meats cause dissension among brethren?
4. In regard to the eating of meats, can you judge your brother?

5. If a person is persuaded in their own mind that one day is more significant than another, can they treat that day as special to themselves?

6. Who do you and I [Christians] belong to?

7. Does the Lordship of Christ extend beyond this world?