

Studies In First Corinthians

(I Corinthians 7:12-24)

1. Did Paul teach that, if a person is married to an unbeliever, such is a reason to put him or her away?

2. Is the marriage between a Christian and a non-Christian an impure relationship?

3. Has a Christian erred if his or her unbelieving mate decides to leave him or her?

4. Is it possible for a Christian to convert his or her unbelieving spouse?

5. Did Paul teach all Christians, in every congregation, to remain in the state that they were in upon their conversions (i.e. circumcision, uncircumcision, slavery, etc.)?
