Studies In First Corinthians

(I Corinthians 10:23-33)

1. Must we be concerned as to whether or not our lawful liberties are edifying to others?
2. Should we be calfish poople?
2. Should we be selfish people?
3. If a Christian is buying meat or eating at feast wherein meats offered to idols may be present should that Christian investigate where the meat they are getting came from?

4. Should you eat something if you know it was part of a sacrifice to an idol?
5. Why are we judged by another's conscience?
