

Studies In First Corinthians

(I Corinthians 14:1-11)

1. Did prophesying have a greater value than other spiritual gifts for the Corinthians?

2. Was it profitable for men to speak to men using an unknown tongue?

3. What did prophesying do for the hearer?

4. Who was edified through one speaking with an unknown tongue?

5. Would it have been beneficial for Paul to speak to the Corinthians if he did not bring some revelation, knowledge, prophecy, or teaching?

6. Are uncertain sounds profitable for anyone?

7. Should we focus on speaking words easy to be understood?