

Studies In First Corinthians

(I Corinthians 15:35-58)

1. Can we expect that people will question how a person can be raised from the dead?
2. What analogy did Paul use to explain how the body dies and raises in a changed form?
3. Shouldn't we realize that there are different types of flesh and different types of bodies?
4. What will be the main difference between your body now and your body when the resurrection occurs?
5. What cannot inherit the kingdom of God?

6. Will anyone remain dead at the coming of Christ?

7. How long will it take for the Resurrection Day to take effect?

8. When will death be swallowed up in victory?

9. For this question, answer this verse: "O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory" (I Corinthians 15:55)?

10. Should we be easily swayed from our service to the Lord?
