

Studies In Second Corinthians

(II Corinthians 3:1-18)

1. If the Corinthians felt they needed letters of commendation from Paul and Timothy, whom did Paul tell them to look to for his examination?

2. Did Paul trust in his own abilities to do the Lord's work or the abilities that God gave him?

3. Was the Old Testament as beneficial to man as the New Testament is?

4. Why did Paul and Timothy use great plainness of speech?

5. Did Moses clearly reveal all things to come to the children of Israel?

6. What kept Israel, in the first century, from seeing the truth in Christ?

7. What would happen had Israel turned to the Lord?

8. Did the coming of the Spirit of the Lord have anything to do with spiritual liberty?

9. Is the glory of the Lord, which was once hidden, now clearly able to be understood?
