

Having A Basic Understanding of Some Old Testament Truths

Part 28 – Dealing With Disputes Through Viewing Things Not Revealed (Deuteronomy 25-29)

1. How was controversy [disputes] to be settled between men?
2. Should an ox be permitted to eat of the corn he is treading?
3. If brethren dwell together and one of them die having no child with his wife; was the brother who refused to carry on his brother's seed looked upon respectfully?
4. Would a woman who helped deliver her husband from a fight with another man by grabbing that man by the secrets [genitals] be punished?
5. Did the Lord require Israel to have accurate and honest weights and measures?
6. Why would Amalek have his inheritance blotted out by the children of Israel?
7. Did God expect the firstfruits or the leftovers when offerings were made unto Him?
8. What was avouched [vowed] between Israel and God?
9. What did Moses, the elders, the priests, and the Levites tell Israel to do?
10. For what causes would the children of Israel be cursed for?

11. Would the children of Israel be blessed if they obeyed all of God's commandments?

12. List seven things God would do to punish Israel for their disobedience?

13. In the great wonders Israel saw, did Israel have an understanding of the great things God had done?

14. Will the Lord spare the one who decides to turn his heart away from God?

15. What would the surrounding nations say if Israel is taken from their land because of disobedience to God?

16. What should even we realize about the things God chooses not to reveal unto us?