

Having A Basic Understanding of Some Old Testament Truths

Part 23 – Laws Concerning Inheritance Through The End Of Numbers (Numbers 27-36)

1. What would occur to a man's possession of an inheritance if he had no sons?

2. Moses was told earlier in our studies of the book of Numbers that he would not enter into the land which God promised Israel. Here are two questions concerning this matter:
  - a. Where did we read about Moses being prevented from entering into the land promised to Israel (hint: within the past 10 chapters)?

  - b. In our current context, do we find Moses is going to be allowed to enter into the land promised to Israel?

3. Did Moses realize that there was a need for leadership among the children of Israel?

4. Who would be chosen to lead Israel into the future?

5. Were there daily, weekly, and monthly offerings made unto God?

6. How soon after the Passover was the feast of unleavened bread to begin?

7. When was the day of the blowing of trumpets?

8. If a man made a vow were they just promises that he was to "try to do his best" to keep?

9. What was the difference between the vow of a man and that of a woman who was still in her father's house or married to a man?

10. What was Moses' last "major" task?

11. Why was Moses angry with the officers and captains who had efficiently killed all the males and destroyed the cities of the Midianites?

12. What was the solution given for the error of the soldiers?

13. Did the children of Israel divide up the spoils of their victory?
14. What did the children of Gad and Reuben want to do?
15. What stipulation was given for the children of Gad and Reuben to have the land of Gilead?
16. Who would decide the borders of the land promised to Israel?
17. What two men would divide the land among the children of Israel?
18. How many cities would be given unto the Levites?
19. What was a city of refuge used for?
20. If the revenger of blood finds the suspect of murderer outside of the city of refuge to which he had fled, will the revenger of blood be guilty for taking vengeance?
21. Was more than one witness required to convict a murderer?
22. Should have any murderer be allowed to be set free with a ransom [satisfaction] under the Law of Moses?
23. What problem was presented at the beginning of the last chapter of our study and how was it resolved?
