

Having A Basic Understanding of Some Old Testament Truths

Part 200 – Two Are Better Than One Through No Rejoicing For The King (Ecclesiastes 4:9-16)

1. Can two people work together and share in the reward?

2. Is it good to be alone if you fall?

3. What benefit could there be to traveling with a companion in times of cold weather?

4. Is it harder for a predator to attack you if you have others with you?

5. In what way is it better to be a poor child that has wisdom than being an old king?

6. Can someone who had been in bondage become a king?

7. In the context of talking about the reign of kings, are kings always honored once the next generation is ready to reign?