

Having A Basic Understanding of Some Old Testament Truths

Part 248 – Woe To Rebellious Children Through Tophet (Isaiah 30:1-33)

1. Were the “rebellious children” looking for counsel in the right place?
2. Did God want His message to His people to be a matter of permanent record?
3. Did Israel want to hear the word of God (in the context of our study)?
4. Did God give Israel a pass on their trusting in oppression and perverseness?

5. Did God intend a permanent destruction upon His people?

6. What was to happen when “the name of the Lord” came from far?

7. When the voice of the Lord came, what was Israel going to be doing?

8. What type of place was Tophet?
