

Having A Basic Understanding of Some Old Testament Truths

Part 250 – Reigning In Righteousness Through Sowing By Waters (Isaiah 32:1-20)

1. After the fall of the Assyrian (Isaiah 31:8-9), would men arise that could be trusted?

2. Would those who wanted to see and hear be able to do so?

3. What was coming for the rash and those who stuttered?

4. What about the vile person?

5. What was the liberal [generous] going to do?

6. Did God have a comforting message for the women who were complacent?

7. What about the land?

8. When would desolation cease?

9. Ultimately, were the righteous given any hope of a brighter future in this prophesy?
