

Having A Basic Understanding of Some Old Testament Truths
Part 341 – Seeing Affliction Through Destruction In Anger (Lamentations 3:1-66)

1. Did the writer of Lamentations initially feel that the strength and hope of God was with him?

2. As the writer of Lamentations recalled things in humility, what happened to his outlook of things?

3. Would God have cast off Israel forever?

4. Since the Lord did not seek to crushingly grieve the children of men, what did man not have a right to complain about?

5. What should they have done after searching and trying their ways?

6. What caused Israel's fear, snare, desolation, and destruction?

7. Why was the writer of Lamentations crying, calling on the Lord, and asking God to recompense Israel for their sins in His anger?
