

Having A Basic Understanding of Some Old Testament Truths

Part 69 – Amaziah Begins To Reign Through Ahaz's Death (II Chronicles 25-28)

1. What is the “but” concerning Amaziah?
2. What did Amaziah do when the kingdom was established to him?
3. What did the man of God tell Amaziah concerning the soldiers from Israel he had hired?
4. Did Amaziah take heed to the warning from the man of God?
5. What did Amaziah do when they went up against the children of Seir?
6. What was happening while Amaziah led his armies against the children of Seir?
7. What did Amaziah bring home from his victory?
8. How did Amaziah know that God was upset with him and how did he respond?
9. What did Joash, king of Israel, tell Amaziah concerning his (Amaziah's) challenge for battle?
10. Why didn't Amaziah take heed to Joash's advice?
11. Does Amaziah get humbled?
12. How did Amaziah end up dying?
13. Before reading past II Chronicles 26:5, what do you think of Uzziah?
14. Who helped Uzziah against the Philistines and the Arabians?

15. Was Uzziah well prepared for battle?
16. What caused Uzziah to sin against the Lord?
17. What happens when Uzziah is confronted for his transgression?
18. How long does Uzziah suffer from leprosy?
19. How did Jotham become mighty and better than his father Uzziah?
20. Why was Ahaz delivered into the hand of the kings of Syria and Israel?
21. What happened to an hundred and twenty thousand valiant men, Maaseiah, and others in Judah?
22. What message did Oded bring to the children of Israel?
23. Did anyone hearken unto the message of Oded?
24. Think outside of the context for this question (hint, Hebrews 7). Why did God seek to protect Judah in our context with Ahaz being so vile?
25. Who did Ahaz turn to when the Edomites and Philistines invaded Judah?
26. Who was ultimately behind the troubles that plagued Judah?
27. How helpful was Assyria to Ahaz?
28. When all else failed, did Ahaz finally turn to God?
29. Who reigns in the place of Ahaz when he dies?