

Having A Basic Understanding of Some Old Testament Truths

Part 81 – Job Answers Eliphaz Through Job’s Condition To Cease Fearing God (Job 6-9)

1. Does Job consider his recent burdens to be too heavy to bear?
2. Does Job sound hopeless from what he is saying?
3. Was Job looking for pity from his friends?
4. Did Job believe his friends were dependable in his time of calamity?
5. Did Job consider his friends capable of bravely standing beside him?
6. Did Job want handouts from his friends?
7. Does Job say he is willing to be taught?
8. Did Job want to hear the truth or just the arguments of his friends?
9. Did Job feel that his friends were being overly critical of his words?
10. Did Job think there was anything sinful that he had said?
11. Does Job complain about his life in chapter seven?
12. Who is Job addressing in chapter seven?
13. Did anyone try to get Job to see he was complaining too much?
14. Did anyone point out to Job that God is a just judge?

15. Job had previously been told that things will get better for him (Job 5:17-27). Is he reminded of that in our current context?
16. What was Job told to enquire of?
17. Would Job do well to forget God and just become a hypocrite?
18. Will God abandon a perfect man?
19. What is the difference in Job 1:1 and Job 9:2?
20. Does Job know how great God is?
21. Why does Job think that God would not answer him if he called upon God?
22. Did Job trust his mouth to utter the right things?
23. Did Job have the mindset that God had forsaken all the righteous people of the earth?
24. Did Job realize how short life in the flesh is?
25. Why couldn't Job forget his complaints?
26. Did Job feel he could cleanse himself?
27. Upon what condition does Job say he would talk to the Lord and not fear him?