

Having A Basic Understanding of Some Old Testament Truths

Part 82 – Job’s Bitterness Through Job Feeling Like A Moth Eaten Garment (Job 10-13)

1. Does Job want to continue his complaining?
2. Does Job feel like God should explain to him why he is suffering?
3. Did Job feel that God could understand his woes?
4. In all of Job’s foolish words, does he realize at all whom he is talking to?
5. Did Job feel like God has hidden from himself that he created Job?
6. Did Job feel that he was doomed regardless of doing good or evil?
7. We have seen Job curse the day he was conceived (Job 3:1-6). Has his mindset changed yet?
8. Did Zophar the Naamathite think that Job’s complaining should go unanswered?
9. Did Zophar think Job was getting what he deserved?
10. Did Zophar establish that God cannot be “figured out” (so to speak)?
11. Is there anyone who can stop God from doing whatever He wants?
12. Can a vain man hide himself from God?
13. Could a vain man find God if he sought him with the right heart?
14. What is Job counseled to do if he has iniquity found in him?
15. If Job presented himself rightly before God, would his calamity end?

16. What do wicked people have to look forward to?
17. Does Job humbly accept the words of Zophar?
18. Does Job feel as one who is being helped or one who is being mocked?
19. Does Job think God is with the just or with the wicked?
20. Does Job think that everything is controlled entirely by God?
21. Job said he would speak to God, but what prevented that concerning those giving him counsel (according to Job)?
22. Job has maintained that God would afflict him though he had not sinned. His friends have argued the opposite. In light of that, does Job feel like his friends are unjustly defending God?
23. What “warning” does Job give his friends?
24. Does Job want counsel or does he trust his life being in his own hands?
25. Was Job confident that the Lord would provide him with salvation, even though he thought God was behind his sufferings?
26. What did Job think would cause him to die?
27. What two conditions does Job give God?
28. Does Job seem to want to talk with God?
29. What question does Job put to God?
30. Does Job feel that God has brought him to nothing?