

Having A Basic Understanding of Some Old Testament Truths

Part 83 – Brevity of Life Through Job Answering Eliphaz Again (Job 14-16)

1. How does Job describe the length of a man's life?
2. What is Job questioning in Job 14:3?
3. Does Job think highly of man's work in this lifetime?
4. Does Job fully understand what happens to man at death (cf. Job 14:12-14)?
5. Does Job recognize the need to answer the calls of his maker?
6. Does Job feel like God is just observing him and making a case against him?
7. Does Job feel God is with or against mankind?
8. What are the right answers to Eliphaz's questions (Job 15:2-3)?
9. Does Eliphaz think that Job has cast off his fear of God?
10. According to Eliphaz, what is condemning Job?
11. Does Eliphaz think that Job's words show him to think that he (Job) is greater than everyone else?

12. According to Eliphaz, what has caused Job to turn his spirit against God?
13. What type of man is Eliphaz discussing when he says man is filthy?
14. What does Eliphaz want to show Job?
15. What information from old does Eliphaz share with Job?
16. If you were Job, what would you do at this point?
17. Does Job consider the words of his friend as helpful or harmful?
18. Did Job tell his friends he would handle the situation differently if he were in their places?
19. Does Job believe he is in the hands of the ungodly because of his friends?
20. When chapter sixteen concludes, does Job finally stop blaming God for his calamity?