

Having A Basic Understanding of Some Old Testament Truths

Part 87 – Bildad Answers Job Through Job’s Lengthy Response (Job 25-31)

1. Does Bildad feel that man can be justified with God?
2. Did Job tell Bildad that he had been helpful in supporting the weak and counseling the unwise?
3. Does Job realize that God’s power extends far and wide?
4. Is Job still thinking God is the one who is behind his suffering?
5. As long as Job is alive, what did he say he would not speak?
6. Did Job want to do anything to justify the reproofs of his friends?
7. Does the hypocrite have anything to hope for long term?
8. Does Job feel that he is in a position to be an instructor to his friends?
9. Job says his friends have seen the portion of the wicked man. What exactly does Job define the portion of the wicked man to be?
10. Precious stones come from mining in the earth, bread comes from the earth, there are untouched and unseen places on earth, etc. (Job 28:1-10). So, where does wisdom and understanding come from?
11. Job had previously said he wished he were dead (Job 10:18). Job had previously said that man could not be perfect (Job 9:2). Job has hated the night in which he was conceived (Job 3:3-11). What does Job now wish for in our context?
12. We read Job recalling the good days of his past, what does he present after he does that?
13. As we read through Job 31, what is Job aiming to do in this chapter?

14. Prepare to discuss Job 31:1 and what we can do by controlling what we look upon.
15. Does Job talk as though he is ready for God to judge him?
16. What punishment does Job feel is just if he had turned out of the way, walked after his eyes, and if any blot cleaved unto his hands?
17. What punishment did Job feel would be just if he had been deceived by a woman or laid at wait at his neighbor's door?
18. What did Job say concerning the despising of one of his servants when they contended with him?
19. What did Job think a worthy punishment would be if he wronged the helpless?
20. Did Job express fear of destruction from God?
21. Did Job think it wise to trust in riches?
22. Did Job perceive himself as a vengeful person?
23. Was Job hospitable?
24. Does Job believe that he has hidden any sins?
25. What does Job say is his desire?
26. What would Job do if the Almighty answered him?
27. Before "the words of Job are ended", what does he say that should cause thistles to grow instead of wheat and cockle instead of barely?