My God And I

1. What field could you and God go into together? Unlike the songs implication of a literal field on this earth, God is with us as we are in the figurative field of the earth (Matthew 13:38; cf. John 4:34-35, Acts 14:27, I Corinthians 3:9, and II Corinthians 6:16).

2. Can you walk and talk with God as good friends should and do? Our relationship with God is greater in reverence than a relationship among earthly friends (Genesis 17:1-3, Psalms 89:7, and Hebrews 12:28-29). Even Christ, who calls the obedient His friends (John 15:14-15), was to be revered (Matthew 14:33). God is not just one of the boys. The manner in which we approach God when “talking with Him” is clearly exhibited by Christ in His prayer (Matthew 6:9; cf. Luke 18:9-14).

3. Do we clasp our hands [hold hands with God] and allow our voices to ring with laughter while walking and talking with God? Talking with God is not a laughing matter (cf. James 4:8-10 and Luke 6:25)!

4. Do we walk together with God through the meadow’s hue [successive stages of color]? One cannot find such a statement in the pages of the Bible. At best, one might be able to conclude that anywhere is not far from God (Acts 17:22-30).

5. In this walk with God does He tell us of the years before us? This statement implies direct revelation from God to us. God’s revelation is through His word, not our direct walking and talking with Him (I Corinthians 2:9-13; cf. Titus 1:3).

6. Does God tell you, in your walk together, about the heavenly plans that were made for you to be? This too implies direct revelation as was between God and Jeremiah (Jeremiah 1:5-9). This is not how God communicates His plans for us today (II Timothy 3:16-17).

7. When God is telling you of the years before you, were these plans a dream of dim conception to come to life to see earth’s verdant [green] glory? Again, God does not directly reveal anything to us today (Hebrews 1:1-2; cf. John 16:13). God’s plan for man is clear (Ecclesiastes 12:13-14). God would not glorify the earth, it is the other way around (Numbers 14:21, Psalms 57:5, Psalms 72:19, and Isaiah 6:3).

9. When the earth passes along with common trifles [something of little value], can we say we will go on with God unendingly? Yes, (II Peter 3:9-14).

10. Do you have any scriptural objections to singing this song in worship to God? Not just one, see questions 1-7 as my scriptural objections to this song.
My God And I

1. My God and I go in the field together, We walk and talk as good friends should and do; We clasp our hands, our voices ring with laughter, We clasp our hands, our voices ring with verdant glory we see. We go unendingly.

2. He tells me of the years that went before me. When all was but a dream of dim conception, To come to life, earth's verdant glory we see, When all was but a dream of dim conception, To come to life, earth's verdant glory we see. We will

3. My God and I will go for we go together, This earth will pass, and with it common trifles, But God and I will go
