My God And I

1. What field could you and God go into together?

2. Can you walk and talk with God as good friends should and do?

3. Do we clasp our hands [hold hands with God] and allow our voices to ring with laughter while walking and talking with God?

4. Do we walk together with God through the meadow’s hue [successive stages of color]?

5. In this walk with God does He tell us of the years before us?

6. Does God tell you, in your walk together, about the heavenly plans that were made for you to be?

7. When God is telling you of the years before you, were these plans a dream of dim conception to come to life to see earth’s verdant [green] glory?

8. Can we say that we will go for aye [for ever] together with God?

9. When the earth passes along with common trifles [something of little value], can we say we will go on with God unendingly?

10. Do you have any scriptural objections to singing this song in worship to God?
My God And I

1. My God and I go in the field together, We walk and talk as good friends should and do; We clasp our hands, our heavenly plans were made for me to be. When all was but a dream of dim conception, To come to life, earth's verdant glory see. When all was but a dream of dim conception, To come to life, earth's verdant glory see.

2. He tells me of the years that went before me, When all was but a walk and talk as good friends should and do; The earth will pass, and voices ring with laughter, My God and I walk thru the meadow's hue. We clasp our hands, our voices ring with go unendingly; This earth will pass, and with it common trifles, But God and I will

3. My God and I will go for eye together, We'll walk and talk as good friends should and do; We clasp our hands, our heavenly plans were made for me to be. When all was but a dream of dim conception, To come to life, earth's verdant glory see. When all was but a dream of dim conception, To come to life, earth's verdant glory see.
