

What If The Hedge Comes Down?

I. Introduction:

A. Job was perfect (Job 1:1) and it was easy for him since everything in his life was going good (Job 1:6-12).

1. Job was able to initially endure the losses (Job 1:13-22; 2:7-10).
2. Yet, when the losses set in he then erred with his words (Job 33:8-13; 34:5-9) partially due to his self-righteous attitude (Job 32:1; 35:1-2).
3. Job had to repent of all of this (Job 42:1-6).

B. Consider Paul on the other hand and how that his attitude was different when he suffered (II Corinthians 12:1-10).

1. Paul didn't need deliverance to be strong, for his perspective was right (Romans 8:18).
2. He therefore was able to teach the evangelist Timothy, in word and deed, to endure hardships (II Timothy 2:1-4; 9-12).

II. Body: "If thou faint in the day of adversity, thy strength is small" (Proverbs 24:10).

A. If you live long enough, you will face adversity in this lifetime (Ecclesiastes 2:22-23, Ecclesiastes 3:1-10, Ecclesiastes 4:1-7, Ecclesiastes 9:7-11, and Hebrews 13:1-3).

1. Don't try to downplay how fleshly matters have a spiritual effect in our lives (Galatians 5:17).
2. At the very least, things we suffer through in the flesh are a spiritual distraction that is very dangerous (Mark 4:19).
3. Don't think that any of us are super capable of spiritual multitasking or we wouldn't read Paul's authorized advice (I Corinthians 7:25-35).
4. There are plenty of things to distract us in this life (I John 2:16).
5. Therefore, we have a responsibility to behave wisely (I John 2:15-17; cf. Ephesians 5:15-17 and I Peter 2:11).

B. To receive the reward of eternal life, you cannot faint [become weak; tired; cease] (Galatians 6:9).

1. We all have things God expect us to do regardless of what we are facing in this world (Hebrews 10:35-39). Consider a FEW (of many that could be listed) examples:

- a. Can't quit on God (I Corinthians 15:58).
- b. Can't quit on your family (Ephesians 5:22-6:4, Colossians 3:18-21, and Titus 2:3-5).
- c. Can't quit on your financial obligations (Psalms 37:21 and Romans 12:17).
- d. Can't quit on your fellow man (Romans 12:18; 13:8-10).

2. You have to be strong enough to keep focused while this world and life in general beats you up (Hebrews 12:1-3).

C. Measure your strength (Revelation 3:1-2).

1. We are not presently facing severe conditions that test our strength (i.e. Matthew 23:34, Acts 5:40-42, Acts 11:27-28, etc.).
2. Yet, we still have to individually, honestly examine and fortify ourselves (Ephesians 6:10-17).
3. Are you strong enough to turn the right way in adversity (Psalms 119:67-72)?

D. Use adversity to become stronger rather than weaker (James 1:2-4; 12).

1. Don't just pack it in and look for the exit when the going gets tough (Romans 5:1-4).
2. While help exists among our brethren (Galatians 6:2), don't always seek it (Galatians 6:3-5).
3. Learn to turn, in all we face, away from the physical distress to our spiritual strength (II Corinthians 4:8-5:4).

III. Conclusion: If You Want Endure Like Paul, Don't Need The Hedge (Philippians 3:4-15).
