

Studies In Romans
(Romans 12:1-9)

1. In what way are we to present our bodies to God?
2. Should we be conformed to this world?
3. In this context, in what way should we not think of ourselves?
4. What kind of difference should there be among members of the Lord's body?

5. Being one body in Christ, who else are we supposed to be members of?

6. During the temporary age of spiritual gifts (cf. I Corinthians 12:1-13:13), did everyone have the same gifts?

7. What is “dissimulation”?

8. How should Christians feel about evil?
